

Easily Procure CityBase Payment Technology through NCPA

CityBase is a preferred vendor of the National Cooperative Purchasing Alliance (NCPA), helping local U.S. governments streamline procurement through cooperative purchasing.

Contract #14-02:

Cloud-Based SaaS Solution for Engagement and Government Transaction Processing

Lead agent: Region 14 ESC

Contract terms: August 16, 2021 to July 31, 2024

Categories awarded:

- Multi-channel payments (web, kiosk, POS)
- Content management
- Digital services

What is cooperative purchasing?

Cooperative purchasing uses a lead agent like NCPA to competitively solicit an agreement that other entities can leverage, such as a city, county, state, or utility. By using an existing contract, local governments and utilities can:

- Drastically streamline the procurement process
- Benefit from technology contracts available at the most competitive pricing
- Gain access to cloud-based solutions that are proven in the field and peer-recognized

About NCPA

NCPA is a leading national government purchasing cooperative working to reduce the cost of goods and services by leveraging the purchasing power of public agencies in all 50 states.

NCPA'S Solicitation Process

The lead agent issues a competitive solicitation for a product or service on behalf of NCPA and all public agencies.

The solicitation is advertised nationally for a minimum of 30 days.

The solicitation has language that makes the contract accessible nationally to public agencies in states with laws that allow intergovernmental contract use.

Vendors respond to the solicitation with sealed responses that are recorded and publicly opened.

Who can use NCPA's contracts?

There are over 90,000 agencies nationwide from both public and nonprofit sectors that can use NCPA's cooperative purchasing contracts, including:

- Federal agencies
- Healthcare organizations
- Higher education
- Local government
- Nonprofit organizations
- School districts
- State agencies
